

Christopher Carroll

Board Director

Chris Carroll is a partner in the New York and New Jersey offices of Kennedy's and chairs the Governance Group. He has extensive experience resolving insurance disputes through litigation and alternative dispute resolution, including environmental, toxic tort, asbestos, construction, advertising liability, products, cyber, technology, property, automobile, and employment issues.

Chris has represented clients in insurance coverage disputes throughout the United States, on both the state and federal levels, as well as in Bermuda, Canada, Puerto Rico, and Europe. He is also experienced in resolving reinsurance disputes and drafting reinsurance contracts.

Chris also actively advises corporate clients on business matters, contract negotiation, environmental litigation, compliance, and commercial disputes.

Chris frequently lectures on insurance and litigation topics, including mediation, negotiation, bad faith, construction defect, toxic tort, hazardous waste, and advertising liability. He serves on the Advisory Board for The Center for the Study of Insurance Regulation at St. John's University and the Editorial Advisory Board of Insurance Law & Litigation Week. He is a Senior Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America, and a Fellow of both the American College of Coverage Counsel (ACCC) and the American Bar Association.

Chris graduated from St. Joseph's College with a BA (magna cum laude) in 1988 and completed his JD at St. John's University School of Law in 1992.

Chris serves as the Chairperson on the Board of Trustees at St. Joseph's University in New York, is a member of the Trial Law Institute and the Diversity Law Institute, and is on the board of United States International University – Africa.