

Alka Thukral

Board Director

Alka brings several years of experience in the non-profit sector. She has served on the board of YWCA Greenwich, and is currently the Vice President of the India Cultural Center, an organization that promotes Indian Arts and Culture.

Mrs. Thukral was raised in the United Kingdom, India and the Middle East before moving to the US. She has a Bachelor of Science in Architecture from the University of Texas at Arlington. She worked in the field for a few years before making a career change to the technology sector at UBS.

She has been a key supporter of STREETS for several years. In 2017, she and her family visited STREETS and was able to experience first-hand how the youth at STREETS learn and subsequently utilize their skills in the hospitality workforce.
