

Viet Nguyen

Board Director

Viet Nguyen is a first-generation Vietnamese American whose parents immigrated to the US following the end of the war in Vietnam in 1975. Like many Vietnamese refugees Mr. Nguyen had a humble upbringing. He graduated as high school Valedictorian in Orange County, CA in 2004, and was sponsored by his high school math teacher to attend NYU. In 2008, Viet graduated magna cum laude with a BS in Finance and Accounting and was inducted to the Stern School of Business Hall of Fame for excellence in academics and community service.

After graduating Viet began his career in Goldman Sachs' Global Healthcare Investment Banking group.

He is currently Managing Director of Capital & Partner Solutions at Vista Equity Partners. Previously, he was Managing Director of Riverstone, the world's largest private equity firm focused on investing in energy. Prior to joining Riverstone, he was a member of the investment team at Wendel North America, and previously a member of the investment team at Advent International.

He has been a long-time friend and supporter of STREETS, having served on the Advisory Board prior to joining the governing board.
